

Can Democrats Still Win in November?

When Whitney Hoffman announced her run for reelection as Township Supervisor, she became the first incumbent to face the voters after the full extent of Lisa Moore's alleged $3.2M embezzlement was publicly announced.

That spells real trouble for Democrats because incumbents almost always lose when a major embezzlement happens on their watch. In addition, Kennett Township Democrats cannot win an election without the votes of Independents and cross-over Republicans. Because of the scandal, that's simply unlikely to happen this time around. A responsible politician would have stepped aside and let other candidates untainted by the scandal come forward.

So when I saw that Whitney was running again, I knew I had to challenge her so that Democrats would have a viable option in the primary with a real chance to win in November. But that's not my only qualification for the job. I'm a 20+ year resident and had a successful two-decade career as a public sector executive leading large human service organizations - far more relevant experience than Hoffman. And I've been active for years in local non-profits, regularly promoting initiatives related to Democratic priorities such as open space, trails, and diversity.

So here's the bottom line: In the May 18 Democratic primary, if Hoffman wins her seat will likely go to the GOP in November. But if I win, we Dems can finally start to put the Moore scandal behind us, and have a fighting chance to keep this seat in Democratic hands.

Vote Peter

for Kennett Township Supervisor
May 18 Democratic Primary

Dear Fellow Kennett Township Democrat,

This will be the final postcard of my campaign for Township Supervisor in the May 18 Democratic Primary. As you probably already know, I'm challenging the incumbent, Whitney Hoffman, because Hoffman simply has too many liabilities to defeat the GOP in November.

Hoffman's main liability is of course the massive $3.2M theft by former Township Manager Lisa Moore, engineered mostly on Hoffman's watch. Worse yet, she has apparently learned little if anything from her self-admitted 'mistake' of trusting Moore, transferring that blind trust to the new Township Manager Eden Ratliff. As a result, Hoffman has since compounded that original liability with a whole range of bad decisions on critical issues such as open space, trails and emergency services, squandering time, resources and taxpayer dollars without accomplishing much at all.

But in any contested primary, it really just comes down to this: Who can actually win in November. Flip this card to find out more about why Hoffman isn't likely to beat the GOP, and I can.

Thanks for your support.
